

NT-ware History

History

Company milestones from 1998 - 2014

1998

NT-ware is founded by Karsten Huster
Initial product offering CanoFLOW with print and copy accounting

1999

Start of cooperation with Canon Germany

2001

Exclusive distribution agreement with Canon Germany
Launch of user identification device MIND

2003 - 2009

CanoFLOW becomes uniFLOW Output Manager
Introduction of the Universal Driver and various other innovative features with release of versions 2 - 4

2004

Exclusive distribution agreement with Canon Europe

2006 2008

Canon Europe acquires a 35% stake in NT-ware, growing to 70% by 2008

2007

Launch of USB card reader MiCard V1

2008

Opening of New York subsidiary and new headquarters in Bad Iburg, Germany
Launch MiCard V2

2010

Opening of Singapore subsidiary uniFLOW Output Manager becomes uniFLOW
Introduction of workflow engine and scan processing with release of version 5

2011

Release of uniFLOW V5.1 with new features Mobile Printing and Device Management
Introduction of uniFLOW for Small and Medium Businesses

2012

Launch of the Universal Login Manager
Launch of USB card reader MiCard PLUS

2013

Release of uniFLOW V5.2 providing operational improvements and integrated print room management
Establishment of Tokyo subsidiary

2014

Release of uniFLOW V5.3 with launch of the uniFLOW Release Station and uniFLOW Capture